

PUBLIC LEIGER

FIFTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, MARCH 7, 1896.

ONE CENT.

HERE AND THERE

If you have friends visiting you, as if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mr. Cleon C. Owens left this morning for Kingston, N. Y.

Mr. Terrence Mackey of Paris is visiting friends in the country.

Mrs. Sue Hopper has returned to her home at Maysville after a visit in this city.

Mr. Shelby P. Campbell of West Union, O., is at Carle, Ark., where his sister is quite ill.

Miss Ella McLanahan and niece, Miss Maggie Winters, left Friday for a visit to relatives in the country.

Miss Emma January of Chicago, formerly of this city, is the guest of Mrs. George Norton at Lexington.

Mr. Henry E. Rosecrans, State Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, of Louisville, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

Miss Kate Ryan, who has been visiting at Washington for some months, left Wednesday for Flemingsburg, where she will remain a short time and then go to New York City.

Very Personal.—Postage on drop letters, whether sealed or not, is 2 cents. Many persons send their notices through the Postoffice with only 1 cent postage. These are "held for postage." Hereafter they must contain a 2 cent stamp.

For Pure Drugs, Fancy and Toilet Articles, call at Ray's P. O. Drugstore.

Alma, the beautiful two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wormald, died this morning at 4 o'clock. The little one had been ill but one week with measles and pneumonia.

Jeweller John Ballenger has in his window a photograph showing the bones in the human hand, taken by an instrument invented by Mr. D. J. Hauss, the electrician, who is well known here.

An old book publisher says that "when the whole system is pervaded by well-oxygenated blood, vigorously propped, life and activity are conspicuously communicated." Which means that when the blood is purified by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, perfect health is the result.

Here is the forcible way an exchange puts it:

"One delinquent said he would pay us Saturday if he lived."

He's dead.

Another one said:

"I'll see you tomorrow."

He's killed.

Another said:

"I hope to go to the devil if I don't pay you this week."

He's gone to his reward.

All parents who are willing for their daughters to take part in the exercises to be given at the Opera-house for the benefit of the sick in town, will please send them to the Opera-house Monday evening after school. Thirty children are wanted. This will not interfere with their studies in any way. None over 13 years of age wanted. Our advice to mothers is to help a good thing along. Send your children; they will be well taken care of.

Fun For All.

A night of melody and fun is promised by that popular and recognized star attraction, H. Henry's Premium Minstrels, consisting of forty prominent minstrel stars, among whom is the only dancing and the great McNish and other bright stars who appear at Washington Opera-house on Saturday, March 7th, and who, if press necessities and public approvals count anything, will present one of the best amusements seen here for a long time. The seats are now on sale at Nelson's.

SOLID FOR BOYLE!

Was the Republican Vote

For Senator on Friday's Ballot.

The last ballot taken in the Legislature for United States Senator resulted—

St. John Boyle..... 63

J. C. S. Blackburn..... 48

John G. Carle..... 15

Tom S. Pettit..... 2

Total..... 128

Necessary to elect, 65.

There were five Republicans absent.

If they had been in their places it is highly probable that Mr. Boyle would have been elected, thus ending the long drawn agony. He received the solid vote of the Republicans present.

The two Populists voted for Pettit.

THE CONCRETE COW.

A haughty cow unto a horse remarked: "Why cannot we, And only we two, practice for A dual jubilee?"

My horse profound in faultless, While your tender tremble is heavenly; and our duet Would please our master so.

With pleading mood she urged her case Then noddily turned away, For the horse looked up disdainfully And only answered: "Heigh!"

—Harpers' Round Table.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEADER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—Fair.

Blue—Rain or snow.

With black arrow—Will warmen grow.

If black's beneath—Colder will grow.

Unless black's shown—no change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty hours, ending at 9 o'clock tomorrow evening.

We respectfully invite the comparison of this paper with any other daily newspaper in all Northern Kentucky, if any one can find a daily paper printed in the Ninth Congressional District that has a larger circulation, or more original reading matter.

We will take pleasure in presenting him with a year's subscription to The Leiger.

And this paper is furnished at same price as other ones.

W. G. Applegate of Tollerhouse has been elected Indiana Secretary of Lewis county.

Colonel J. Henry Peacor is making an addition to the home place on East Third street.

Send your next order for Printing to The Leiger Office. We do work cheap, but not cheap work with a game between K. U. and State College.

Some one lost a water-proof coat on Second street, and it can be found at E. A. Robinson's Cigar Store.

Thieves broke into the grocery of Armstrong Bros. at Augusta and yanked $4 from the cash register.

Water Matthews, assignee of Wilson J. Jackson, has been directed to sell at auction the assigned property.

Dr. J. P. Huff, preparatory to his removal to Frankfort, has sold his residence to Mr. Mary Bane.

Premature baldness may be prevented and the hair made to grow on heads already bald by the use of Hair Vegetable Seltzer Hair Renewer.

Special Sale on Ladies' Sample Oxfords, Tan and Black, the latest style; prices from 95 cents to $1.49.

PROGRESS STONE.

The late Charles P. Dietrich having been on the board of August Schaeffer, guardian of Pauline Schaeffer, a new bond has been given, with Robert Bisset surety.

Miss Phoebe Marshall of Washington has been visiting her brother, Mr. Robert M. Marshall, and attending the union services at the Methodist Church in Sardis.

The meeting at the Christian Church in Washington has closed. There were seven additions to the Church. Rev. Mr. Hawkins left for his home at Lexington.

A. P. Darrow, formerly of Vanceburg, Pullman Car Conductor on the Queen and Crescent Railroad, was seriously injured in a wreck near Macon, Ga., a few nights since. Mr. Darrow is a brother of Mrs. John C. Lovel of this city.

Mr. E. H. Hunter of the Washington vicinity went to Millersburg this week to be present at the sale of the McClelland farm near there, with the intention of buying should it go at a figure to suit him. Should he buy he will remove to that county.

The books of the Limestone Building Association are now open for subscription to the Fourteenth Series. Take stock in a good 61 per cent. investment. This is an easy way to buy a home and stop paying rent. Call on H. C. Sharp, James E. Threlkeld or any of the Directors.

All last winter Mr. George A. Mills of Lebanon, Conn., was badly afflicted with rheumatism. At times it was so severe that he could not stand up straight, but was drawn over on one side. "I tried different remedies without receiving relief," he says, "until about six months ago I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. After using it for three days my rheumatism was gone and has not returned since." For sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

The City Council at Carle has reduced taxes 10 cents on the $100.

Michael Burns, a highly respected citizen of near Germantown, died a few days since at the age of 80.

Miss Elsie H. Schatzman, who has been seriously ill for the past seven weeks, is still thought to be in a very critical condition.

Mr. J. E. Hunter of Washington Thursday bought 120 acres of land with a fine residence near Millersburg. The land belonged to McClelland Bros., and the price paid was $91, 25 per acre.

Mr. Anderson Williams of Germantown met with a very serious accident a few days ago while hanging tobacco in his warehouse. He fell, breaking two of his ribs and receiving other injuries.

The marriage of Mr. John J. Mendall and Miss Alice Martin is announced to take place at Covington on the 15th inst. The bride formerly lived in this city and has many relatives in the county.

If the gentlemen who broke into Countessman's grocery while he was saving the city Thursday night will call on him during business hours he will show them where he keeps his good cigars. Those they got were "three for."

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

Frank Glascock of Fleming, who was being taken Tuesday afternoon to the Asylum at Lexington, escaped at the Paris Depot from his guards and started down the L. and N. tracks toward Cincinnati. He was captured, however, and that night taken to the Lexington Asylum.

UNCLE SAM TALKS

The Postoffice Department Shuts Down on Books Mailed at Second-class Rates!

The following telegram was received by The Lexington Friday afternoon:

CHICAGO, March 6th, 1896.

Public Ledger: New ruling of postal officials suspends second-class rates on books. Free book distribution therefore suspended. Send no more orders.

ALBERT G. BEAUNISSE, Business Manager Chicago Record.

In accordance with the above—and very much to our regret—we are compelled to withdraw the offer of books free to subscribers.

But there's no use in "kicking" against your Uncle Sam.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Announcements For Services at the Various Churches Tomorrow.

Don't forget the Y. M. C. A. at 3 p. m.

Presiding at the Christian Church tomorrow at 10:45 a. m. and 7 p. m. by Rev. J. B. Jones of Hamilton Female College. Other services as usual. The public cordially invited.

Worship in the Baptist Church tomorrow morning and night. Preaching by Pastor, Rev. P. T. Trotter, both services. Sunday school at 9:15 a. m.; Young People's Meeting at 6 p. m. Prayer meeting Thursday at 7 p. m. All are cordially invited.

L. P. TROTTER, Pastor.

At the Methodist Episcopal Church the protracted meeting grows in influence and interest. Quarterly meeting services on Sabbath, conducted by the Rev. Dr. F. R. Fenger, P. E. Quarterly Conference Monday night. Services today at 3 and 7 p. m. E. L. SHEPARD.

Services in the First Presbyterian Church tomorrow morning and night at the usual hours, conducted by the Pastor, Rev. John S. Hays, D. D.

Sunday Sabbath-school at 9:30 a. m.; Mission Sabbath-school in the German Church at 9:30 a. m. and 7:20 p. m.; Sunday School every Sunday at 9:30 a. m.; Class Meeting every first and third Sunday at 10:30 a. m.; Epworth League services every Friday and every other Sunday evening. A. W. G. GRIZZLE, Pastor.

M. E. Church, South—Sunday school at 9:15 a. m.; preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:20 p. m.; Epworth League at 6 p. m.; Prayer-meeting Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. We extend to you and through you whom you may invite a cordial invitation to attend the above services. We will give you a warm welcome and try to do you good.

J. S. SONS, Pastor.

There will be the usual services at the Central Presbyterian Church tomorrow.

Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; preaching at 10:30 a. m.; Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at 6 p. m.; preaching at 7 p. m. Everybody cordially invited to worship with us, and they will be made welcome.

Rev. W. O. Cochran will preach a special sermon for the benefit of young men, the subject being The Strength of Young Men," on tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock at the Central Presbyterian Church, to which everybody is cordially invited.

W. O. COCHRANE, Pastor.

The organization of the Young Men's Christian Association on an all round basis is now an assured fact. The young men have begun to realize what a great benefit this organization will be to them and have taken hold of it, and within the coming week those who are pushing it hope to complete the canvass. Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock Mr. Henry Ward Ulrich will lead the Men's Gospel Meeting, at which he will give a practical talk to men, and it is urged that every man in the city be present. Don't forget the hour—3 p. m.—at the Y. M. C. A. Room in Cox Building.

Simon S. Hartman of Tuncellon, Va., has been subjected to attack of colic about once a year, and would have to call a doctor and then suffer for about twelve hours as much as some when they die. He was taken recently just the same as at other times, and concluded to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says: "I took one dose of it and it gave me relief in five minutes. That is more than any thing else has ever done for me." For sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

Taste in Jewelry.

You can be over-jeweled as well as over-dressed. Taste is necessary in selection of jewelry. That is eminently what we strive after; we select our stock with as much regard to taste as to prices. The result is we have one of the most beautiful displays of jewelry, watches, diamonds, silverware, &c., that can be found anywhere. Call, and we will take pleasure in showing you around wherever you buy or not.

J. BALLENGER, Maysville, Ky.

Mr. William R. Gill improves very slowly, and is still confined to his bed.

The gross earnings of the L. and N. for the fourth week in February were $443,783, an increase of $56,131 over 1895, of $83,579 over 1894, but a loss of $43,097 as compared with 1893.

THAT PROJECT ONCE MORE!

Another Tenth of a Corps Thought to Be Very Dead.

When we were building the Columbus and Maysville Railroad, says The Morning Star, Judge Thompson of Hillsboro said to us, "Let us begin at the heart and it will beat both ways." We are glad that the heart still beats, but the extension is still dormant. Why not extend from Hillsboro to Greenfield? There would be much travel over this important line, and from the county seat for court callings, for churches in their "General Conferences," and "Pres

